Building a Financially Sustainable Future for Holy Name School

By Colleen Peterson,
Development Director

In February of this year a press release brought to light a less than desirable financial situation for Holy Name School. In response to this challenge a campaign began and was named: Bigger Than Our Boundaries. Our constituency acted very quickly and in less than four months the financial issue for fiscal year 2009-2010 was resolved. From the Summer 2010 Rambler: Our success over 90 plus years is due to the great support of many, many people. These people are in Omaha, in Nebraska, across the country and indeed even around the world. In response to our needs so many of you let us know how important our mission is today! We received a total of 395 donations from 21 different states for a total of $324,732! Thank You!

Today, many of you want to know, what now? A plan has been developed with the support of seven corporate business leaders who have come together because of our success with our students today. They are impressed when we speak of the foundation built through nine decades, but what really impresses them is the data about our students from 2005-2010. The following is the demographic data collected on our student population over the past five years:

- Enrollment has been steady with no significant upward or downward spikes: 180 students in 2005-2006 and 166 students in 2009-2010
- Over five years Holy Name School has served an average of 16 zip codes from around the Omaha area
- The Catholicity of our student population has remained steady averaging approximately 60% Catholic and 40% non-catholic. An interesting note here is that the 40% are Christian – they do have a faith life.

The ethnic diversity of our student population also remained steady over five years remaining at about 50% Caucasian and 50% other minority including: African American, Sudanese, Vietnamese, Hispanic, and many others.

- Single parent household data shows that 43% of our family households in 2005-2006 and in 2009-2010 are supported by only one parent – generally maternal.
- Many of our families struggle financially. In 2009-2010 only 29% of the families paid full tuition, 29% paid partial tuition supported by tuition assistance provided by Holy Name, and 45% are supported with tuition assistance through the Children's Scholarship Fund.

The real story is in the academic data. There are many programs and inner city schools serving children of minority backgrounds who live in poverty, but, Holy Name School offers the children success built on excellent academic programming that meets their needs. Today our student's continue to achieve excellence! The following data covers the 8th grade graduates from 1998 through 2006. These students graduated from high school from 2002

The Mission of Holy Name Catholic School

The mission of Holy Name Catholic Elementary School is to educate children of diverse backgrounds to be academically prepared, compassionate toward others and rooted in the Catholic Christian Community

For our children today the word “hero” is hard to define. It may be one of those old fashioned words that have gone out of style! As Catholics we often refer to the Saints as our faith heroes. Their stories are often dramatic and not always relevant to the world of our young students. So, it is important that we guide students into the world of identifying heroes within their world of common experiences. If we really think about it....we have many wonderful people to choose from. This was the assignment given to a group of 5th graders and I include some excerpts from their responses for your own reflection. Children can teach us a lot if we are prepared to listen...

Sophia Koch

My heroes are all the women affected by breast cancer who have both survived and lost the fight. The reason all these people are heroes to me is because I know about it first hand. My grandmother lost her fight. She died of breast cancer before I was even born. And because of that, what really hurts is the fact that I never got to meet her. I never got to talk to her. I never got to hear her stories or taste her food. Breast cancer took all that away from me. I don't want anyone else to lose anything to this disease.....Kamryn Pullen

My grandma is my hero because every day she battles leukemia.....Nick Hilton

My hero is my mom. She has taken care of me since I was born. She brought me to America, along with my brothers and sisters, at the age of 6 months, to give us better lives. Before we were born, my mother lived in Africa. She took care of her brothers because their parents had both died.....Nyasibit Kume

Firemen are everyday heroes. They only get put in the paper when there is a BIG fire. I know a fireman who should have been in the paper. He was my grandpa. He is the hero I never got to know. My grandpa was a fireman AND a hero. I think he was a brave man because he was the Chief of the Department. He volunteered to run into the fires to rescue animals and help people while other firefighters waited outside to put the fire out.....Seamus Lee

Most of my heroes are from our past. They have shaped our world to make it a better place. They have freed slaves and made extreme sacrifice so all people could be treated the same. They are true heroes.....Jessica Lee

Many of you reading this letter are included among the heroes of Holy Name. You have gone above and beyond expectations to support our mission. You have given us more years of opportunity to help our students choose “heroes” who will make a positive difference in the direction their young lives will take as they grow into adulthood. May God bless you for generosity and your prayers.

Their teacher, Mrs. Jenny Bradley, has been at Holy Name for 18 years. This year we are serving students from 11 different zip codes!

Holy Name Choir Sings at Mass

What comes after auditions? A mass choir at Holy Name. The students selected for mass choir this year had their first performance on Sept 8th. The students will sing at every student mass this year, as well as many other assemblies and functions. Congratulations to the new choir!

Please and Thank You

Holy Name students who excelled in Social Skills during the month of October were awarded their certificates at the all school assembly on November 2nd. Every month the students are asked to focus on a different skill...the month of October was Social Skills. These students remembered to say Please, Thank You and to follow all the rules of a good school citizen during the month. They won a gift certificate to the student store and recognition in front of their classmates.

Holy Name Students are "The Future"

On Saturday, Sept. 18th, students and parents from Holy Name School joined in the Benson Loyalty Day Parade. In addition to passing out candy to the crowd, they entertained everyone by rapping "We are the Future." The students had a great time and can't wait for next year!!

Holy Name Student Raps to Introduce Student Store

For the last 11 years, Holy Name Student Council has sponsored a student store. The store provides inexpensive school supplies throughout the year. This year, prior to the official opening of the store, Nick Davis, wrote and performed a rap to remind the students of the variety of items sold at the store. Some of the council members clapped along and held up items for the students to see. The Holy Name students aren't going to forget the store this year!!!!

Early Childhood Health Fair

On October 14th, Holy Name School in collaboration with Creighton University OISSE students held an Early Childhood Health Fair. The fair was open to the community and focused on health issues of children from birth to 8 years of age. Over 20 different booths provided activities and information on topics ranging from nutrition and the food pyramid, to healthy eating choices and stress management. In addition to the activities for the children, many of the booths had handouts and web resources for parents to help them provide a healthy lifestyle for their children. Blood pressure testing and dental hygiene were also included. UNO school psychology students provided information on early childhood literacy and every child received a free book. The fair was sponsored by a grant from the Better Way Foundation, Opus Philanthropy Group.

Holy Name Student Recognized

School Begins Year with School Blessing

Following the first school mass of the year, Fr. Frank Baumert led the students around Holy Name's campus to bless the school, playground, gym and cafeteria. At each location, he stressed the importance of kindness and compassion. This activity was the first in the school's No Place for Hate® campaign. Holy Name is entering its 2nd year as a No Place for Hate® school. No Place for Hate® is sponsored by the Anti-Defamation League.

UNO Visits Holy Name

Holy Name School was proud to welcome the University of Nebraska-Omaha (UNO) Chamber Choir for a concert. The choir sang selections in Latin and French for the Jr. High students. They also invited the children to sing along with them. The school was proud to welcome an alumni, Ben Brich, as part of the choir. The songs were beautiful, and the Q&A portion of the performance was very informative.

And When the Saints...

Holy Name students in the 2nd and 3rd grade celebrated All Saints Day by dressing up as their favorite saint. The students led the procession at mass and prepared a speech about their saint to present to the entire congregation. It was a wonderful celebration of the Saints in the Catholic Church.

Holy Name Teacher Steve McCarville holds his hand on the wailing wall during his recent trip to visit the "Holy Land".
See story below

Holy Name Teacher Reflects on Trip to the "Holy Land"

By Steve McCarville

I am quite grateful that Ed Alster of the Anti-Defamation League and several benefactors made it possible for me to visit the "Holy Land." I must confess that a trip to the Middle East has never been on my "bucket list."

Some of the highlights included visiting the Western Wall where as Ed said, "I could feel the throbbing power of hundreds of people praying for over 2000 years and Masada which reminded me of the Alamo, a place where so many people decided not to go "quietly into that dark night." I was quite taken with the Sea of Galilee, or Lake Gennesaret and it was quite a moving experience as we celebrated mass near the shore and adjacent to the Church of the Beatitudes.

As a Christian I was thrilled to be able to walk in the old city of Jerusalem, Bethlehem, and Nazareth where Jesus Christ also walked. Being able to spend time in Capernaum, the hometown of Simon Bar Jonah, also known as Peter the fisherman, and view the ruins of the old synagogue. I was impressed by our tour of Yad Vashem, the Israeli Holocaust Museum and being able to meet Hannah Pic, one of Anne Frank's childhood friends who survived the war.

As we travelled throughout Israel, I kept the advice of Fr. Dennis McManus and Rabbi Elliot Dorff, two of the Bearing Witness instructors, with me, "Do not travel as a tourist, go as a pilgrim." This gave me a richer perspective when I visited the Great Synagogue in Jerusalem or prayed at the Western Wall. You cannot be fully Christian if you do not try to understand its Jewish roots. That which connects us is stronger than that which divides us. It was the trip of a lifetime for which I shall be forever grateful. I only hope I can pass on what I learned in my sixth through eighth grade geography, history, and religion classes at Holy Name School.

The Chevrons: Where Are They Now?

Remember the Chevrons??

This group of guys rocked the Omaha area back in the 1960's but proved their popularity has lasting ability by providing some toe tappin' entertainment at the 2010 Holy Name Harvest. They were voted the most popular band in the Omaha area in 1966 when they were still in high school. The Chevrons were inducted into the Nebraska Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1998.

The original members were: Denny O'Malley (Prep '67), Phil Peterson (HN '67), Greg Fox (Prep '67), and Mike Vogltanz (HN '67). The group had other members over the years, including another Holy Namer, Larry Villone, (Prep '67). The group became a "legend" around Omaha in the 60's and early '70s and gained local fame playing at "Sandy's Escape" in Benson and also at the "Tanglewood Ranch" teen clubs. The group had several recordings and one hit that made the national charts, "Love I Love You."

For inquisitive minds, here is an update on the careers of the individual HN Chevrons:

Denny O'Malley: rhythm guitar - graduated from Creighton and earned a Master's degree in Health and Hospital Management. Denny became involved in hospital administration in Colorado and at the age of 26, was promoted to CEO of the Craig Institute in Denver. Under Denny's leadership for 34 years, the Craig Institute prospered into one of the premier Rehabilitation Centers in the country. He resides in Colorado.

Phil Peterson: bass - earned degrees from both UNO and Northern Arizona University. Phil became involved in real estate development in Arizona (Initially with Del Webb, famous for his many Sun City retirement communities in the South and the West). Phil is the owner of Brookfield Communities, which had gross sales of over $100 million dollars in 2005. He resides in Phoenix.

Greg Fox: lead guitar - graduated from UNO with a degree in Education. He has been employed in the professional fundraising field for many years. Previously he was a development officer for Creighton Prep, Uta Halee Girls Village and the Iowa School for the Deaf. He is currently the Director of Fund Development for the Nebraska Bar Association. Greg has continued his musical career as lead guitarist and part-time vocalist for the "Bozak and Morrissey" band that has been active in the Omaha area for decades. Greg lives in Omaha.

Mike Vogltanz: drums - the oldest of the large Vogltanz family that attended Holy Name for grade and high school. Mike attended design school training in Graphic Arts and currently owns, Vogltanz Graphic Design in Northbrook, Illinois. Mike became an accomplished drummer in high school. He resides in the Chicago area.

Larry Villone: vocals - was a "late comer" to the group. Larry sang with the Chevrons and was also a member of another Hall of Fame Band; The Rumbles. He was ordained a priest in the Missionary of the Blessed Sacrament order. He earned a bachelor's degree from UNO and a Master of Divinity seminary degree. Larry conducts missions and gives spiritual talks all over the country as part of his priestly duties.

The Holy Name Community is grateful to The Chevrons for their donation of time, talent and treasure making our 2010 Harvest event so special!

Holy Name High Grad Receives Third Tony Award

On Sunday June 13th, at Radio City Music Hall in New York City, Pat Halloran joined the likes of Catherine Zeta-Jones, Denzel Washington and Scarlett Johansson to accept a Tony Award. As a producer, Halloran was not only instrumental in the promotion and marketing of MEMPHIS, but he also played a key role in raising $14 million to stage the show in New York. MEMPHIS, The Musical, also topped the 2010 Drama Desk Awards for Best Musical, Best Actress, Best Music, and Best Orchestrations. Halloran was also honored at the 60th annual Outer Critics Circle Awards where MEMPHIS earned seven nominations, winning in four categories including one for Outstanding New Broadway Musical.

Halloran and his team will regroup to work on new marketing and promotional strategies for MEMPHIS as it prepares to launch its international tour, set to begin at the Orpheum in Memphis, Tennessee in October of 2011.

MEMPHIS is loosely based on the life story of radio disc jockey Dewey Phillips who challenged racial barriers by introducing black music to white radio in the segregated 1950s, igniting a cultural revolution and showing how the blues, soul, and gospel all played a part in the birth of Rock and Roll. The production is set on Beale Street and the last scene takes place on the Orpheum stage in Memphis, TN. This is not the first Tony Award for Halloran, having won two other Tonys for his involvement with Thoroughly Modern Millie (2003) and Spamalot (2005).

After graduating from Holy Name High in 1961, Halloran went on to receive a Bachelors Degree from the then University of Omaha and a Masters degree from the University of Miami (FL). He looks forward to his high school reunions every five years and visiting with his classmates whom he still carries fond memories of and shared some of the best years of his life.

Halloran served on the Memphis City Council from 1975 to 1980 and was a candidate for Mayor in 1980. He currently resides in Memphis, Tennessee where he has become a prominent figure and true asset to the Memphis community with his many contributions and achievements. For the past three decades Halloran has been the President and CEO of the Memphis Development Foundation, which operates the Performing Arts Center in downtown Memphis. He served on the Board of Governors of the Broadway League for eight years and the Broadway League's Executive Committee for four years, which governs the Broadway Theatre industry in North America. In 1999, the League presented Halloran with "The Outstanding Broadway Executive Award." He is also President of the Independent Presenters Network, a consortium of over 100 theaters across the United States, Canada, and Japan who present touring Broadway productions and concerts in their communities.

Halloran is the author of The Orpheum-Where Broadway Meets Beale, the history of the Orpheum Circuit and the Orpheum Theatre in Memphis. Mr. Halloran and his wife Anne live in Memphis and have four children Patrick, Kat, Steve, and David.

From the Director of Development

Collen Peterson

Someone may rise from poverty to become king of his country, or go from prison to the throne, but if in his old age he is too foolish to take advice, he is not as well off as a young man who is poor but intelligent.

Ecclesiastes 4:13-15

In March of 2010 we began the process of building a plan to provide a solid foundation for our future. With the help of seven corporate leaders we have reviewed almost every aspect of the work of the development office. They have offered their time and talent to support us in making changes that allow for greater assurance of financial viability. Through their kindness and great experience they have asked us to make changes that will add so much strength to the ever present support that we receive through each of you. Change is hard, but always necessary. Nothing stays the same in this world and without making changes those things that lye stagnant will eventually fade away. Holy Name will not fade away and we have taken on the challenge of making changes to preserve our future for the students that we must serve in the twenty first century. We will be accountable, we will be good stewards of the gifts you provide, we will be transparent so that all can see what we do, but most of all; we will continue to measure our impact. I hope we have done a good job of providing you with information that makes us transparent and helps you see that we steward your contributions with great care and consideration.

If you are considering a charitable contribution as an end of year gift, it is our hope that you will direct it to Holy Name School. Your support is critical to the lives of so many students and families who will use the skills and knowledge taught to them at Holy Name School to become the leaders of your tomorrow. Thank you for all that you do for Holy Name!

through 2010.

- 98% graduated from High School: 93 out of 95 graduates. (The average high school graduation rate for the public school system surrounding Holy Name is about 49%)
- 82% reported plans for post high school education: 78 out of 95
- 3% plan to enter the Armed Services: 3 out of 95
- 2% we could not account for: 2 out of 95
- 13% started working after graduating: 12 out of 95
- Students who start and stay with us show an average increase of 20 percentile points on ITBS scores.

The 2006 eighth grade class reached their high school graduation milestone in 2010. The following are some of the major achievements of this class:

- 100% of these students graduated from high school
- Valedictorian at Mercy High School
- Buffett Scholarship recipient

The 2010 eighth grade graduating class achievements:

- Four Roncalli Catholic High School scholarships
- Creighton Prep scholarship

- Ninety percent of the 2009-2010 class will attend a local Catholic High School

Follow up data on our eighth grade graduates since 2002 provides proof that we fulfill our mission each year. A total of 83 students graduated from Holy Name from 2002 through 2006. Of these 83 students 96% or eighty students graduated from high school and 85% or sixty-eight students are pursuing post secondary education. This group of students averaged 24.7 on their ACT testing.

In every prayer I commit to Our Lord I ask Him to continue to enlighten our friends and alumni community of the strength they provide for our student's today. Holy Name School is not in business just to "keep the doors open". Since 1918 we are in business to provide an excellent education and push our students to reach for the stars; to become the leaders of the future just as you have become the leaders of today.

A Note from Father Frank

Fr. Frank

A year and a half ago, on the Feast of Pentecost, I was preaching about the power of the Holy Spirit. I was explaining how the Holy Spirit reversed the effects of the Tower of Babel on Pentecost by making it possible for people of many nations and languages to hear the good news of Jesus from the Apostles. As I looked at the congregation in front of me I pointed out that it was a lot like them. At the end of Mass I asked anyone who was not born in the U.S.A. to call out the country of their birth. We had over a dozen different countries represented.

On October 17 we celebrated this distinction of Holy Name. It is a great blessing to be one of the most diverse parishes in Nebraska. The celebration, starting with Mass highlighted that diversity. The flags of thirty countries were carried in by the children. By the time the U.S. flag came in at the end of the procession everyone cheered because this is where we have all found a home. Our first reading was read in Vietnamese, the second was read in Nuer, a dialect in the Sudan and the Gospel in French by a priest from Togo, West Africa. The petitions were in the languages mentioned above with the addition of Spanish. To top it off, the Ave Maria was sung in Latin, the official language of the church. This celebration of Mass was so beautiful! This is what the Church is all about; bringing all of the people of God together. There were over four hundred people in attendance at Church signifying a true a celebration of Pentecost!

Following the celebration of Mass the parish hosted an international potluck dinner. My estimate was that we had foods whose recipes came from over twenty countries. To name a few, we had Puerto Rico, Cuba, Guatemala, the Philippines, Italy, Germany, Nigeria, and Vietnam. Celebrating the continued welcoming tradition that is Holy Name over three hundred people came to share in this meal. All of this happened because of the power of the Holy Spirit and we certainly felt His power in the joy that was in our hearts.

These traditions started with your ancestors and continue today due to the great support and loyalty you carry for the mission of Holy Name Parish and School. Thank You!

Holy Name Community Celebrates Diversity

Holy Name Parish and school celebrated their first annual Ethnic Fair on October, 17th, 2010. Joining in the celebration were parish and school families. The celebration began with mass in the church. Mass began with the children carrying in 34 different flags representing the cultures of the community. Readings during mass were in Vietnamese, Nuer (the language of the Sudanese people) and French. The school choir joined the parish choir to sing songs in other languages. The children created 10 presentations for the fair and those were accompanied by parish displays from Sri Lanka, Poland, Hong Kong, South Korea and others. The fair was a pot luck of the most delicious ethnic food you could imagine. Food from countries ranged from Hong Kong to Vietnam to Sudan to Kenya to Guatemala to Ireland and many countries in between. The students were proud to share their food, culture and artifacts.
